

Joseph "Juseff" Wilson
Patient Advocate – Peer Support Specialist

Joseph "Yuseff" Wilson has dedicated over 20 years to serving and advocating for individuals in underserved communities. With 23 years of sustained recovery, Mr. Wilson is a living testament to the power and effectiveness of Medication Assisted Recovery (MAR). Specializing in MAR and resource navigation, Mr. Wilson works to combat the stigma that often surrounds addiction and the use of medication in recovery. He is a vocal advocate for recognizing addiction as a chronic medical condition, and he challenges misconceptions that prevent people from seeking or receiving effective care.

Mr. Wilson's journey not only inspires but also drives his compassionate, person-centered approach to helping others reclaim their lives. Mr. Wilson is known for his strong work ethic, selflessness, and unwavering commitment to those he serves. He uses his lived experience to guide individuals through recovery. Mr. Wilson's story serves as a powerful tool to motivate and instill hope, especially for those who face barriers to treatment. Through advocacy, mentorship, and education, Mr. Wilson continues to bridge gaps in care and promote dignity and respect for people in recovery. He remains a powerful voice in the movement to build equitable, stigma-free systems of support for those affected by addiction.
