

ACCF CME/CNE Front Matter

Statement of Need

The ACC Quality Summit provides attendees with registry-specific and hospital industry knowledge, plus a deeper understanding of the value of accreditation and ways patient data can drive process improvement initiatives. Attendees will take away best practices through educational sessions, networking, and ePosters, and discover tools and techniques to improve health care quality within their organizations.

At ACC's Quality Summit, attendees will gain insights and inspiration from cardiovascular leaders and experts and be a part of a healthcare network committed to providing optimized cardiovascular patient care.

This year's ACC Quality Summit in-person conference will focus on:

- Ami B. Bhatt, MD, FACC, Chief Innovation Officer (CIO) at the American College of Cardiology, will deliver The Ralph G. Brindis Lecture
- "Fuel-Up" with the Experts and Chest Pain: The Solution Room
- Best practices, tools, and resources to bring back to the team
- The Summit Showcase to connect with exhibitors
- The Spotlight Theater highlighting ePoster oral presentations and over 100 ePosters
- Networking opportunities throughout the conference

Overall Goal

The overall goal of the Quality Summit is to enhance the knowledge and competency of NCDR and Accreditation professionals to enable them to effectively translate data and quality programs into achieving quality care. Together NCDR and Accreditation "Design, Lead, and Achieve" quality.

Learner Objectives

Upon completion of this program, attendees should be able to:

- Examine emerging trends and future directions at the intersection of technology and health care quality and delivery.
- Recognize tools and resources provided by NCDR and Accreditation Services aimed at enhancing quality and patient outcomes.
- Compare and contrast best practices and strategies identified during the ePoster sessions.
- Discuss how to engage physicians and staff in the quality improvement process.

Target Audience

This course is intended for:

- Cardiovascular Administrators and leaders seeking innovative solutions to improve service line processes of care.
- Quality improvement professionals who lead organizational performance improvement efforts.
- Hospital, health system, and facility administrators who want to learn how the NCDR Registry/Accreditation Services can support their organizational strategic goals.
- NCDR Registry site managers and Accreditation Services coordinators who are interested in data integrity and quality improvement processes.

Joint Accreditation Statement:

In support of improving patient care, the American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Credit Designation Statement

Disclosure/Conflict of Interest Statement

As a provider jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) must ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of their directly provided or jointly provided/co-provided educational activities. Planners, presenters, and other contributors, in a position to control the content are required to disclose to the audience all relevant financial relationships he/she and/or his/her spouse or domestic partner may have, occurring within the past 24 months, with any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. When an unlabeled use of a commercial product or an investigational use not yet approved for any purpose is discussed during an educational activity, the contributor should disclose that the product is not labeled for the use under discussion or that the product is still investigational.

ACCF is committed to providing its learners with high-quality activities and materials that promote improvements and quality in health care and not a specific proprietary business or commercial interest. The intent of this disclosure is not to prevent participation in educational activities by persons with a financial or other relationship, but rather to provide learners with information on which they can make their own determination whether financial interests or relationships may influence the education activity.

ACCF assesses conflicts of interest (COI) with its faculty, planners, managers, staff, and other individuals who are in a position to control the content of certified activities. All relevant potential conflicts of interest that are identified are thoroughly vetted by course directors, ACCF education staff, and members of the Accreditation Compliance Workgroup (ACWG) through a process that includes appropriate peer review for fair balance, scientific objectivity and validity, and patient care and safety recommendations.

ACCF has taken the necessary steps to ensure that all relevant financial relationships have been mitigated. Please note ACCF staff and the ACWG members involved with this activity have nothing to disclose.
