

SUBMISSION EVALUATION RUBRIC

Each of the following items will be rated on a 1 to 4 scale:

Articles on Original Research	Articles on Non-Original Research
Significance of topic to the National Dental Hygiene Research Agenda or current issues in dental hygiene.	Significance of topic to the National Dental Hygiene Research Agenda or current issues in dental hygiene.
Abstract describes the content of the article and follows the correct format.	Abstract describes the content of the article and follows the correct format.
Study's purpose or hypothesis are clearly stated.	Manuscript's purpose or hypothesis are clear.
Significance of the study is clearly described in the introduction.	Importance of the topic and the objectives for the review are clearly stated.
Methodology and statistical design are clearly described and appropriate for the study.	Content of the review is organized, sequential and easy to follow.
Results are clearly reported in the text, tables, and figures.	Research cited is scientifically accurate and represents the most current literature.
Discussion synthesizes the results and compares the results with the literature.	Research cited comprehensively supports the review objectives.
Conclusion supports the results of the study.	Conclusion is supported by the previously cited research and discussion.
References in the article are current, appropriate, and adequate in number to support the study rationale and significance of the findings.	References in the article are current, appropriate, and adequate in number to support the study rationale and significance of the findings.
Illustrations and tables are correctly formatted and labeled.	Illustrations and tables are correctly formatted and labeled.
Overall quality of the scholarly content (formatting, grammar, NLM citation style).	Overall quality of the scholarly content (formatting, grammar, NLM citation style).