

Exhibitor / Attendee Housing Scam Notice

Dear Attendees,

We've been notified that several exhibitors and conference attendees received calls and/or emails from companies claiming to be an agent of, or associated with, APTA Private Practice and/or Marriott hotels and offering discounted room rates. We have no relationship with any third party company to assist with booking hotel rooms on our behalf and do not provide personal contact details such as emails or phone number of our attendees to anyone. If you need to book a room for the 2023 Annual Conference you can do so directly through our conference website or the hotel reservation link. If we negotiate any further hotel blocks based on demand, we will always list them on our website and provide contact information for our specially negotiated rates.

We always strive for the best rates for our attendees, and balance that with hotels conveniently located near the conference venue. We will update the information provided on our website if the hotel block starts to sell out as quickly as possible. Unfortunately, this practice is commonplace for many large conferences and events. Beware that entering into financial agreements with non-endorsed companies can have costly consequences.

Please alert our team if you are contacted by anyone or if you ever have questions about whether someone who has reached out to you has a legitimate relationship with the our team. You can reach us at pps@kcimeetings.com.

Sincerely,

APTA Private Practice Staff
