Join 750+ experts, influential decision makers, and industry leaders working to ensure heritage places endure – from urban and rural buildings to districts, downtowns, and landscapes.

APT is a 501(c)(3) non-profit US organization in accordance with the standards and regulations of the US Internal Revenue Service (IRS) EIN # 52-1514895. Consult your tax advisor for specific guidance on the tax deductibility of your support.

WHY SPONSOR?

INCREASE BRAND VISIBILITY with exposure in a dynamic and professional environment with potential clients through face-to-face connections in the Exhibit Hall, recognition in collateral materials, or at various social events designed to put your brand prominently in front of heritage leaders.

GENERATE LEADS through exceptional visibility with, and access to, key decision-makers working with the restoration, rehabilitation, and adaptive reuse of existing buildings throughout the world.

NETWORK WITH EXPERIENCED PROFESSIONALS AND HERITAGE LEADERS including peers, clients, government officials, suppliers, site managers, and historic building specialists. Engage with experienced senior-level professionals in the design, engineering, construction, and skilled crafts.

LEARN FROM INDUSTRY LEADERS gathered to share and discuss the most up-to-date information on the care, preservation, conversation, and adaptive use of historic properties of all types.

SUPPORT & MEET THE NEXT GENERATION of industry professionals. Tap into the impressive student and emerging professional population in attendance and find your future employees.

STUDENT SCHOLARS

Through the Student Scholarships Program, post-secondary students in the field of historic preservation/conservation are invited to submit abstracts that illustrate research or a project that they have developed to address an aspect of preservation/conservation technology. The selected student abstracts will receive a full complimentary registration and travel expenses for the APT Annual Conference as well as a one-year APT membership. Each APT Student Scholar is paired with a mentor from the APT College of Fellows to guide the development of their oral presentation, which is given during one of the Conference paper sessions.

PETC STUDENT DESIGN-BUILD COMPETITION

The Preservation Engineering Technical Committee (PETC) Student Design-Build Competition is a hands-on challenge to post-secondary students interested in historic buildings and structures. Teams of students analyze an existing masonry arch and design their own arch structure before the conference. Top teams are brought to the Conference for on-site building and testing of their structures and a variety of educational and networking activities with peers and professionals. PLEASE NOTE: Donations include recognition on PETC materials and in the conference program, but not sponsor benefits. If a donation is $1,500 or above, donors will be provided one free conference registration.

Please note that donations are not considered sponsorship and do not qualify for sponsorship benefits due to their tax deductibility.
