ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING - MINUTES
San Francisco, CA
Monday, July 15, 2025
12:45 – 1:45 PM PT

Dr. John Newell-Price, the Society's President, called the meeting to order at 12:47 p.m. PT.
The minutes of the 2024 Annual Business Meeting were approved.

Dr. Newell-Price provided a brief presentation of the state of the Society, covering the following areas: ENDO program, particularly career development opportunities for trainees and fellows, basic science programming, our journals, clinical practice guidelines, recent advocacy efforts, the new Hormone Foundation, and a call to action for nominations to the open Board positions for 2026.

Dr. Newell-Price acknowledged with thanks the retiring Officers, Board members and Committee Chairs. A moment of silence was observed in memory of members who had passed away during the previous year.

Dr. Jeffrey Boord, the Society's Secretary-Treasurer, reported that the 2024 financial statements reflected the Society's strong financial position. Dr. Boord reported that the Society's total assets as of December 31, 2024, were approximately $58.7 Million dollars, with over three-quarters of our assets being liquid and available to support Society operations as well as investments in new programs and opportunities.

Dr. Newell-Price made his last presidential remarks and presented the gavel to the Society's next President, Dr. Carol Lange.

Dr. Lange welcomed the new Board members who would begin their term after the Annual Business Meeting:
President-Elect: Nanette Santoro, MD
Board At Large Members:
Cherie Butts, PhD
Leonor Corsino, MD
Patricia Morris, PhD
Heather Patisaul, PhD

The floor was opened to receive questions from the members.

Dr. Lange announced that the 108th Annual Meeting, ENDO 2026, will be held June 13-16 in Chicago, Illinois. The meeting was adjourned by Dr. Lange at 1:45 p.m. PT.
