PRIMR23/SBER23 SESSION FORMATS

Session Type	Descriptor	Session types included
Thought Leader Series	The Thought Leader Series will present high-level concepts on research, oversight, and ethical issues, and are meant to stimulate thinking beyond process and procedural matters. These sessions bring professionals from across the research program together to think about topics collectively. Sessions will include one or more speakers who are thought leders in the field.	Category includes: keynote talks, panels, living room conversations, debates [75 minutes]
Deep Dive Series	The Deep Dive Series will provide attendees with an in-depth exploration of a timely and challenging topic in research ethics and oversight. One or more speakers will give presentations on various topics and time will be devoted at the end to attendee questions.	Category includes: Breakout sessions [60 minutes]
Learning Lab Series	Sessions in the Learning Lab series are focused on brainstorming new solutions/approaches, problem solving challenging issues, and/or knowledge-sharing on a particular topic. Sessions will include a mix of speaker presentations and interaction among attendees	Category includes: Breakout sessions [60 minutes]
Networking Series	The Networking Series is intended to facilitate connection and dialogue among attendees on the challenges and opportunities associated with a particular topic or professional role. Sessions will be structured and moderated by a facilitator, but will emphasize interaction and participation among attendees.	Category includes: Networking sessions, Office Hours, Poster Presentations [15-60 minutes]
Vendor Insight Series	The Vendor Insight Series will provide include sponsored presentations by conference supporters and exhibitors. Presentations will be on specific topics as they related to vendor serivces/resources, and are meant to assist those working in the research oversight communtiy with their day to day operations.	Category includes: Sponsored vendor sessions [30-45 minutes]
Workshop Series	Workshops are half-day sessions happening on December 3, and are intended to disseminate knowledge on a particular topic and allow time for attendee interaction in the form of small group work, Q&A, case studies, and more. Courses are three hours in total and are an additional fee.	Category includes: Half day Workshops on 12/3; additional fee, pre-registration required