

HOW TO CLAIM CME

Deadline: Monday, February 12, 2024

CME credit can only be claimed for sessions that you attended during the in-person conference. Any content viewed throughout the next year does not have CME credit.

1. Login at <https://sno2023.eventscribe.net/> or the SNO mobile app, with your SNO registration username and password.
 - Website: Click on “Login” at the top navigation pane (see red arrow below)
 - Mobile App: Login when prompted.
2. Click on “CME Information/CME” from the menu.
3. Click on “Claim CME” (see red arrow below)
4. Complete the respective evaluation(s)
 - Review Course
 - Education Day
 - Annual Meeting
5. Complete the session evaluation(s)*
6. Select the type of certificate respective to you
 - MD/DO
 - Other Health Care Professional (HCP)
7. Print/save your certificate(s).

*For each certificate type, evaluate all sessions you wish to claim CME for BEFORE you move to the task to print your certificate. Credits will accumulate for each certificate type and be saved.

The screenshot displays the website for the SNO 28th Annual Meeting and Education Day, held in Vancouver, Canada from November 15-19, 2023. The navigation menu on the left includes: Conference Information, Program, Speakers, ePosters, Q&A Sessions, All Special Events, Speaker/Presenter Information, Exhibit & Support Overview, CME Information (highlighted with a red arrow), and Abstract Submission Info. The 'CME Information' dropdown menu is open, showing options: Annual Meeting, Education Day, Review Course, and Claim CME (Login Required) (highlighted with a red arrow). The main content area features a 'Registration Information' banner, a 'Program' section with a large audience photo, and 'Education Day' tracks for Basic Science and Applied Science. A 'Keynote' by Evanthia Galanis from Mayo Clinic is also featured. The user's name 'Ginger V.' is visible in the top right corner.
