2022 Scientific Meeting and Education Day of the Society for Neuro-Oncology

November 17-20, 2022

Tampa Convention Center

Tampa, FL, USA

Submission Deadline Extended: July 29, 2022

The Society for Neuro-Oncology (SNO) will hold its 27th Annual Scientific Meeting and Education Day on November 17-20, 2022, at the Tampa Convention Center, Tampa, FL.

Thanks to the generous support of Novocure, the SNO Women and Diversity Committee will award 10 scholarships to early career healthcare professionals who are underrepresented in medicine (URIM) and wish to further a career in neuro-oncology.

In order to be considered for one of the travel scholarships, the applicant must meet the following guidelines:

1. Be permanent citizen of the United States or Canada,
2. Could otherwise not attend without the benefit of a travel scholarship,
3. Be in the early phase of their career,
4. Is not the presenting author of an abstract being submitted to the SNO meeting, and is:
 - A woman pursuing a career in neuro-oncology, or
 - A URIM professional pursuing a career in neuro-oncology.

The total value of the scholarship is $2,500.00, comprised of four complimentary nights of accommodation (November 17-20, 2022) at one of the designated conference hotels, complimentary meeting registration, and a $750.00 stipend to offset the cost of travel and meals.

Applicants will be notified via email in August if they have been selected for a scholarship.
